PRIMARY ELECTION PROFILE

(Election # 214) – August 28, 2018

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO VOTE

- Florida is a closed primary state, which means that only registered Democrats or Republicans may cast votes for candidates who are members of these two parties that will appear on the ballot.
- Voters with no party affiliation, or who are registered as independents, or members of other minor parties are not eligible to vote in a race for the parties listed above. However, all voters will be eligible to vote in other races on the ballot which are considered non-partisan such as school board and judicial races. These voters may also cast a vote in races identified as a Universal Primary.
